

Establishment Licence Holders' Autumn Forum

Supporting your Named Persons

28th October 2024

Francis Crick Institute, Midland Road, London
Programme

0930 - Registration and coffee

1000 - Introduction

Helmut Ehall, Chair, Establishment Licence Holders' Committee

1005- How PELhs can support PPLhs and research conducted at Scientific Establishments (presentation title TBC)

Dr Simon Pitchford, Reader in Immunopharmacology, Kings College London

1035- Setting the direction for animals in science regulation

Dr Will Reynolds, Head of Animals in Science Regulation Policy Unit

1055 - ASRU operational update - improving governance, working with your Named Persons

Dr Kate Chandler, Head of ASRU

1115 - Refreshment break

1130 - Update and results to date from IAT NACWO survey

Glyn Fisher, Chair of IAT Council

1150 - Series of short presentations from Named Persons on their experiences & ways they have been supported by their PELhs. NACWOs, NVS, NTCO and NIO perspectives

*Nienke Fishwick, NVS GSK; Zara Heaven, NTCO Inotiv; Heather Callaway, NACWO & Fish Facility manager UCL; Nick Dean, NACWO University of Cambridge; Caroline Zverev
NACWO The Francis Crick Institute & Claire Walker, NIO Agenda Life Sciences*

1345 - Lunch

1430 - Interactive virtual polling exercise- sharing of experiences, common management challenges and possible solutions, ensuring effectiveness of Named Persons, creating your own charter etc Angela Kerton, The Learning Curve (Development) Ltd

1505 - Feedback from virtual polling session.

Chaired by Helmut Ehall, Chair, Establishment Licence Holders' Committee

1515 - Panel Q&A opportunity - ask those questions to the expert panel

Helmut Ehall, Dr Will Reynolds & Dr Kate Chandler

1555 - What the future holds for PELhs and the PELH Committee? What do you want from the PELH Committee? Followed by closing remarks Helmut Ehall

1600 - Opportunity for networking for PELhs with drinks 1700 - Closure of meeting